PROCEEDINGS OF THE SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING HELD ON 25-12-1943

11 Commissioner's note dated 15-12-1943 seeking sanction to the entertainment of 3 peons on 10/- plus Rs 7/- D A per month to work under the Special Land Acquisition Officer

At the request of some members, subject No 11 was taken up

In this connection there was a huge discussion as to the formation of the B V Krishna Iyengar Road and several members spoke about creating facilities for those that would be dispossessed of their properties on account of acquisition

After a lengthy discussion, Mr Mirza Azizulla Beig proposed the following proposition -

> 'Whenever dwelling houses in the City are acquired possession of such acquired houses be taken granting sites at upset prices to the owners whose properties are acquired "

This was accepted by the House

Then the Commissioner's Note for the entertainment of only two peons for the Special Land Acquisition Officer was approved and the proposition of Mr Mirza Azizulla Beig was passed by the House
